The splendid veranda shaded by wisteria, from which this house takes its name, is ideal for relaxing and eating outdoors. Although part of a complex of houses, the size of the garden, the arrangement of plants and shrubs and the paths through the greenery will protect your desire to be calm. The house has two bedrooms with a communicating bathroom accessible from both rooms, it can accommodate up to 5 people. The guests of the house have free access to the swimming pool and the use of the external bathroom and shower immersed in the bamboo grove. If you like walking, you can also walk to the ancient village of Ostra, which is located about 1500 meters away, and go shopping in the small local supermarket. In the surroundings, there are numerous places where you can buy fresh vegetables and local products. Ending the day with a good glass of wine, in the suggestive frame of the hills, is the best you could wish for, the area is known for high quality wines, such as Lacrima di Morro d'Alba.
